

ENN PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE ON REQUEST

The ENN's resource library brings together a wide range of resources that we hope will be useful to those working in emergency nutrition and food security. We have a large number of paper copies of the following publications that we are looking to distribute:

In French

IFE training materials:

- (a) 'L'alimentation infantile dans les situations d'urgence: Module 2, v. 1.1: Formation, pratique et references. Décembre, 2007) and
- (b) Directives opérationnelles à l'intention du personnel et des administrateurs de programmes: 'Alimentation des nourrissons et des jeunes enfants dans les situations d'urgence'. Version 2.1, Février 2007

In English

- (c) "Making It Matter": Proceedings of a strategy meeting held by the Infant and Young Child Feeding in Emergencies (IFE) Core Group, Oxford, 2006. [With a post-meeting update, January, 2007.] A compressed but wide-ranging review of (1) challenges at the coordination and policy level, (2) challenges in implementing policy, and (3) directions of strategies and practical steps.
- (d) Field Exchange No. 39 (e.g., field articles from Haiti and Nepal, research on data gathering, FBF, RUTF, news and views)
- (e) Special Supplement 1: Targeting food aid in emergencies (July 2004) by Anna Taylor and John Seaman (SCUK) . Provides guidance on the design of food aid targeting systems in emergencies.
- (f) Special Supplement 2: Community-based therapeutic care (CTC) (Nov 2004) compiled and edited by Tanya Khara and Steve Collins (Valid International). Provides a broad range of opinions and experiences of CTC to inform a wide audience about the CTC model of intervention and its relationship with other humanitarian interventions.

Please send an e-mail to Katherine@ennonline.net with your name, full postal address, and numbers required by February 15th 2012 and we will arrange for the resources to be sent to you.
