

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

NUTRITION-SENSITIVE AGRICULTURE AND FOOD SYSTEMS

Interactive e-learning modules for policy and programme planners

- ▶ Developed through a multi-stakeholder consultative process
- ▶ A scenario-based and experiential learning approach
- ▶ Covers all forms of malnutrition and a diversity of contexts

Improving Nutrition through Agriculture and Food Systems

www.fao.org/elearning/#/elc/en/course/NFS

- ▶ What are the linkages between agriculture, food systems and nutrition?
- ▶ Examples of nutrition-sensitive policies, investments and programmes

Basic concepts of Nutrition, Food Security and Livelihoods

www.fao.org/elearning/#/elc/en/course/NFSLBC

- ▶ What are food, nutrition and the different forms of malnutrition?
- ▶ What frameworks for food security, nutrition security and livelihoods concepts? And how are they linked?

From nutrition situation analysis to nutrition-sensitive project design, monitoring and evaluation

- ▶ How to conduct a comprehensive nutrition situation analysis
- ▶ How to select objectives, target groups, indicators and activities for greater impact on nutrition

Available
in 2017

For more information, please visit:
www.fao.org/nutrition/policies-programmes/elearning